

I pay for a service that XM provides because I was tired of commercials and the crap that is on normal radio stations. NAB needs to leave XM and satellite radio alone. FM Radio stations in my area lost my ears because of endless commercials and talk that filled the air waves instead of music. Therefore I am willing to pay for a service that provides me with what I want.